

About the Mid-Tennessee Gem & Mineral Society

The Middle Tennessee Gem and Mineral Society is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization dedicated to the study and enjoyment of the Earth sciences. We are open to the public for the education of all who wish to attend. Society membership is open to persons interested in the Earth sciences.

The Society has provided scholarships in the Earth sciences field to colleges and universities in the area where our members live. We also meet for programs, go on field trips, and help maintain lapidary classes at the Donelson Senior Citizen Center, Middle Tennessee Natural History Museum, and Coffee County Senior Citizens Center in Tullahoma. We make donations to the William Holland Lapidary Arts School in Young Harris, Georgia, the Mayo Educational Foundation, Middle Tennessee Natural History Museum and the Ben E Clement Museum.

Our members' dues pay for the rental of the building where we meet, the publishing of a newsletter, and other expenses that we incur.

We are members of the Southeastern Federation of Mineralogical Societies and the American Federation of Mineralogical Societies.

We have no hired workers. All of our people are volunteers. We have a volunteer board of directors who meet about ten times a year to do the business of the organization. The board is made up of elected officers and board members.

Our show is produced by a volunteer show committee and volunteers who are willing to help. The show committee meets several times throughout the year to insure the success of the show.

Over the years, we have given scholarships to the following to be used in the Earth sciences field:

Austin Peay State University
Middle Tennessee State University
Tennessee Tech University
Motlow State
Vanderbilt University

We also provide support to the Donelson Senior Citizens Center Lapidary Workshop, Coffee County Senior Citizens Center's Owens Brothers Lapidary Workshop, and the Middle Tennessee Natural History Museum as well as other public educational projects.

We meet monthly at these locations in Middle Tennessee:

Murfreesboro	3:00 PM on the 4th Sunday of the Month
Donelson	3:00 PM on the 3rd Sunday of the Month
Tullahoma	3:00 PM on the 2 nd Sunday of the Month
